

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 92-04

IN RE:

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FILED IN THE KEY WEST DIVISION

On Wednesday, November 20, 1991, at a regularly scheduled meeting of the judges of the Southern District of Florida, a report was presented to the Court by the Key West Case Assignment Committee in accordance with Administrative Order 91-69. Following discussion, the Court determined to retain the present system of assigning cases filed in the Key West division to Judge James Lawrence King with the following modifications:

It is ORDERED and DECREED the system of assigning civil and criminal cases filed in the Key West division exclusively to Judge James Lawrence King be modified to the effect that any judge wishing to try Key West cases on a one or two week docket could do so with credit to be received for cases tried by an informal exchange with Judge King.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED the system of assigning cases filed in the Key West division to Judge James Lawrence King as modified above, be revisited by the Southern District judges at the November 18, 1992 meeting.

DONE and ORDERED in chambers at the United States Federal Building and Courthouse, 299 East Broward Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this 21st day of January 1992.

Norman C. Roettger, Jr.
Chief Judge

c: All Southern District Judges
Keenan G. Casady, District Executive
T.G. Cheleotis, Clerk of Court
