Advisory Notes

(1993) (a) General Comments. Local Rule B is intended to enhance and codify the local procedural requirements uniquely applicable to actions of maritime attachment and garnishment under Supplemental Rule (B). Other local procedural requirements involving actions in rem and quasi in rem proceedings can be found in Local Admiralty Rule E.

21 When read in conjunction with Supplemental Rule (B) and (E), Local Admiralty Rules 22 B and E are intended to provide a uniform and comprehensive method for constitutionally 23 implementing the long-standing and peculiar maritime rights of attachment and garnishment. 24 The committee believes that Local Admiralty Rules B and E correct the deficiencies perceived 25 by some courts to exist in the implementation of this unique maritime provision. 26 Schiffahartsgesellschaft Leonhardt & Co. v. A. Bottacchi S.A. de Navegacion, 552 F.Supp. 771 27 (S.D.Ga.1982); Cooper Shipping Company v. Century 21, 1983 A.M.C. 244 (M.D.Fla.1982); 28 Crysen Shipping Co. v. Although the Committee is aware of the Eleventh Circuit's decision in Schiffahartsgesellschaft Leonhardt & Co. v. A. Bottacchi S.A. de Navegacion, 732 F.2d 1543 (1984), the Committee believes that from both a commercial and legal viewpoint, the better practice is to incorporate the pre-seizure scrutiny and post-attachment review provisions provided by this rule. These provisions protect the rights of any person claiming an interest in the seized property by permitting such persons to file a claim against the property, and thereafter permitting a judicial determination of the property propriety of the seizure.

27 (1993) C(2). Well reasoned authority has upheld Supplemental Rule (C), specifically 28 holding that a pre-seizure judicial hearing is not required where a vessel, freight, or intangible property is proceeded against to enforce a maritime lien. Amstar Corporation v. S S Alexandros 29 30 T, 664 F.2d 904 (4th Cir.1981); Merchants Nat'l Bank v. Dredge Gen. G.L. Gillespie, 663 F.2d 31 1338 (5th Cir., Unit A, 1981); Schiffahartsgesellschaft Leonhardt & Co. v. A. Bottacchi S.A. 32 de Navegacion, 732 F.2d 1543 (11th Cir.1984).

34 The desirability of providing by local admiralty rule an available avenue for reasonably 35 prompt and effective post-arrest judicial relief is indicated. See, Merchants Nat'l Bank v. Dredge 36 Gen. G.L. Gillespie, supra, at 1334, 1350. This provision is incorporated in Local Admiralty 37 Rule C(7).

39 This procedure made available through this rule has proven effective. Maryland Ship 40 Building & Dry-Dock Co. v. Pacific Ruler Corp., 201 F.Supp. 858 (S.D.N.Y. 1962). In fact, the 41 procedure established by this local rule goes beyond that encountered in Merchants Nat'l Bank

v. Dredge Gen. G.L. Gillespie, supra, or Maryland Ship Building & Dry-Dock Co. v. Pacific Ruler Corp., supra.

Under this rule, the claimant or intervenor may petition the Court to order the plaintiff to establish probable cause for the arrest of the property. Therefore at an early stage of the litigation, plaintiff can be required to establish a prima facie case that he is asserting a claim which is entitled to the dignity and status of a maritime lien against the arrested property. This rule contemplates the entry of an order with conclusory findings following the post-arrest proceedings. More detailed findings may be requested by any party.

11 The rule is not intended to provide a method for contesting the amount of security to be 12 posted for the release of the vessel. Once a prima facie case for the maritime lien has been 13 established, or the question of lien status remains uncontested, the matter of security is left to the 14 provisions of Local Admiralty Rule  $5 \underline{E}$ .

16 C(3). Supplemental Rule (C)(3) also addresses the less commonly encountered action in 17 rem to enforce a maritime lien against freights, proceeds or other intangible property. The 18 revision to this rule designates the U.S. Marshal to take custody of all tangible and intangible 19 properties arrested in accordance with this rule, and to bring these properties under the control 20 of the Court. This is the practice in many other districts, and when implemented will provide 21 the greatest uniformity in the treatment of tangible and intangible property.

C(5). Although this section is new to the local rules, it reflects the current local practice with respect to undertakings and stipulations in lieu of arrest. Such undertakings and stipulations have been held effective to permit a Court to exercise its in rem admiralty jurisdiction so long as either at the time the undertaking or stipulation is given, or at any subsequent time prior to the filing of the action, the vessel or other property is, or will be, present within the district.

- C(6). The substance of former Local Rule 2(b) is continued.
- C(7). See the comments for Local Admiralty Rule  $\frac{3(b)}{C(2)}$ .
- C(8) and (9). These sections are designed to mesh Supplemental Rule (C) with Fed.R.Civ.P. 55. For purpose of default and default judgments, the rule recognizes two distinct groups of in rem claimants.

The first category of claimants include those who by ownership or otherwise, would, but for the arrest of the property, be entitled to its possession. Pursuant to Supplemental Rule (C)(6), these claimants must file a claim setting forth their interest in the property, demand their right to receive possession, and to appear and defend the action. In the case of such claimants, the operation of standard default procedures foreclose their rights to contest positions of the party in whose favor the default is rendered, and the entry of default judgment is both fair and appropriate.

The second category of claimants embodies a potentially numerous and varying class of claimants. The claims of these other claimants do not give rise to a right of possession of the vessel from the marshal or other appropriate custodian, but rather invoke the power of the Court in admiralty to foreclose against the property by the ultimate rendering of a judgment in rem against property entitlements. Such judgments would be predicated upon non-possessory liens.

11 The time in which the second category of claimants may intervene is governed by the 12 provisions of Local Admiralty Rule  $-5 \underline{E}$ . Such lien claimants are not obligated, and indeed are 13 probably not entitled to file a claim of possession to the vessel, or to answer and defend in the 14 name of the vessel. As to them, in accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 8, the essential averments of 15 all the complaints are taken as automatically denied.

No default judgments entered pursuant to this rule will operate to adjudicate priorities among competing non-possessory lien claimants.

20 In attempting to reconcile the traditional notions of default and default judgments with 21 the concept of in rem proceedings, the final language has been formulated to maintain the , 22 efficacy of the default procedure without resulting in premature adjudication effecting priorities 23 and distributions. The default procedure establishes in favor of the holder of such a default 24 judgment, a lien position against the proceeds of the property, resulting from any sale or 25 disposition, or, if currency is involved, the ultimate adjudication, inferior to all other competing 26 priorities, except the otherwise escheating right of the property owner to the remnants and 27 surpluses after all full-claims satisfactions. At the same time, the right of a person obtaining a 28 default judgment to contend and compete with other claimants for priority distribution remains 29 unaffected.

(1993) This rule continues in substance with the provisions of former Local Admiralty

Since a petitory and possessory action can be joined to obtain original possession, The Friendship, Fed.Cas. No. 5,123 (CCD Maine, 1855), this rule contemplates that an expedited hearing will only occur in purely possessory actions.

(3) Special Requirements for Salvage Actions. In cases of salvage, the complaint shall also state to the extent known, the value of the hull, cargo, freight, and other property salvaged, the amount claimed, the names of the principal salvors, and that the suit is instituted in their behalf and in behalf of all other persons associated with them.

In addition to these special pleading requirements, plaintiff shall attach as an exhibit to the complaint a list of all known salvors, and all persons believed entitled to share in the salvage. Plaintiff shall also attach a copy of any agreement of consortship available and known to exist among them collegially or individually.

Subsequent to the arrest or attachment of a vessel or property, and except as provided 33 in Local Admiralty Rule E(10)(a), no person may handle cargo, conduct repairs, or move a 34 vessel without prior order of the Court. Any 38 movement of a vessel pursuant to such requirements must not remove the vessel from the 39 Southern District of Florida and shall be reported to the Court within twenty-four (24) hours of 40 the vessel's movement.

Advisory Notes

2 3 (1993) E(1). This section continues the provisions of former Local Rule 7(c). 4 5 E(2). This section is new. The rules do not require an intervening plaintiff to undertake 6 the formal steps required to issue the original process of arrest or attachment pursuant to Local 7 Admiralty Rule B(3) or C(2); rather the Committee believes that intervening parties need only 8 apply for supplemental process, which in accordance with the August 1, 1985, amendments to 9 Supplemental Rule (B) and (C), may be issued by the clerk without further order of the Court. 10 The Committee recommends the re-arrest or re-attachment provisions of this rule in order to 11 accommodate the administrative and records keeping requirements of the marshal's office. 12 13 The revision also reflects the elimination of the initial security deposit formerly required 14 by Local Admiralty Rule 5(e). The Marshal shall, however, assess custodial costs against the 15 intervening plaintiff in accordance with Local Admiralty Rule  $\frac{-5(f)(2)}{E(5)(b)}$ . 16 17 18 19 E(9). Section (9) is new. The provisions of Section (i) are expressly authorized by 20 Supplemental Rule (E)(6) and offer some potential relief from the automatic operations and 21 other provisions of Supplemental Rule (E) regarding security for value and interest. The decision 22 in Industria Nacional del Papel, C.A. M V Albert F., 730 F.2d 622 (1984) (11th Cir. 1984) 23 indicates that such an application must be made prior to the entry of judgment. 24 25 E(10) Section (10) is new. It is designed to reflect the actual practice in the district, and 26 follows the rules promulgated in several other districts. In formulating this rule, the Committee 27 studied Section 6.3 of the "Marshal's Manual", the internal operating guide for the United States 28 Marshal's Service. Section 10(b) was amended in 1998 to permit substitute custodians to move 29 arrested vessels, pursuant to an order of the United States Coast Guard Captain of the Port 30 ("COTP"), without first obtaining permission from the Court. The change was prompted by 31 instances where substitute custodians declined to obey a COTP order to move an arrested vessel, citing Local Admiralty Rule E (10)(b) and its requirement that Court permission be first 32 33 obtained. Any movement of a vessel pursuant to a COTP order must not take the vessel out of 34 the Southern District of Florida. A corresponding change was made in Form 5, paragraph (5). 35 36 E(11). Section (11) is new. It addresses areas which in recent litigation in the district 37 have called excessively for interim judicial administration. While the subject matter is covered 38 in the rules promulgated in other districts, section  $\frac{(12)}{(11)}$  differs from the approach of other 39 districts in providing for a more positive control of expenses being incurred in connection with vessels or other property in the custody of the Court, and is designed to avoid accumulated costs being advanced for the first time well after having been incurred.

41 42

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	E(12). Section (12) is new. It addresses a situation which has arisen in the district in the past and which can be foreseen as possibly arising in the future. While the subject is not addressed in other local rules studied by any oft-cited leading cases, it was the opinion of the Committee that the area should be addressed by local rule and that the provisions of Section (12) are both consistent with the general maritime laws of the United States and designed to permit efficient administration without the necessity for undue judicial intervention. As with the claims of intervenors and the allocation of deposits against custodial costs, the provisions of Section ( $m$ ) (12), in keeping with the design of these local rules, are intended to be essentially self-executing, with the emphasis on the ministerial role of Court officers and services.
11	E(13). Section (13) continues the provisions of former Local Rule 17(a). It follows Rule
12	41, Fed.R.Civ.P., and addresses the necessarily greater concern for costs and expenses inherent
13	in the in rem admiralty procedure.

(2) Appeal to a District Judge - Deleted. See Pub.L. No. 104-317 § 207. 110 Stat. 3847 (Oct. 19, 1996) (repealing 28 U.S.C. § 636 (c)(4) and (5).

A. Notice of Appeal. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(4), the parties may consent to appeal any judgment in a civil case disposed of by a Magistrate Judge to a District Judge of this Court, rather than directly to the Court of Appeals. In such case the appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal with the Clerk of Court within 30 days after entry of the Magistrate Judge's judgment; but if the United States or any officer or agency thereof is a party, the notice of appeal may be filed by any party within 60 days of entry of the judgment. For good cause shown, the Magistrate Judge or a District Judge may extend the time for filing the notice of appeal for an additional 20 days. Any request for such extension, however, must be made before the original time period for such appeal has expired. In the event a motion for a new trial is timely filed, the time for appeal from the judgment of the Magistrate Judge shall be extended to 30 days from the date of the ruling on the motion for a new trial, unless a different period is provided by the Federal Rules of Civil or Appellate Procedure.

- 18 ------B. -----B. -----Service of the Notice of Appeal. The Clerk of Court shall serve notice of 19 the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof to counsel of record for all 20 parties other than the appellant, or if a party is not represented by counsel to the party at 21 his last known address.
- 23 C. Record of Appeal. The record on appeal to a District Judge shall consist 24 of the original papers and exhibits filed with the Court and the transcript of the 25 proceedings before the Magistrate Judge, if any. Every effort shall be made by the 26 parties, counsel, and the Court to minimize the production and costs of transcriptions of 27 the record, and otherwise to render the appeal expeditious and inexpensive, as mandated 28 by 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(4).
- 30 -Memoranda. The appellant-shall within 30 days of the filing of the notice . D. - 31 of appeal file a typewritten memorandum with the Clerk, together with two additional 32 copies, stating the specific facts, points of law, and authorities on which the appeal is 33 based. The appellant shall also file a copy of the memorandum on the appellee or appellees. The appellees shall-file an answering memorandum within 30 days of the 34 appellant's memorandum.-The Court may extend these time limits upon a showing of 35 good cause made by the party requesting the extension. Such good cause may include 36 reasonable delay in the preparation of any necessary transcript. If an appellant fails to 37 38 file his memorandum within the time provided by this rule, or any extension thereof, the 39 Court may dismiss the appeal.
