General Policy. Unless otherwise provided by law, Court rule or Court order, proceedings in the United States District Court are public and Court filings are matters of 13 public record. Where not so provided, a party seeking to file matters under seal shall follow 14 the procedures prescribed by this rule. 15 16 17 B. Procedure for filings under seal. A party seeking to make a filing under seal shall: 18 19 1. Deliver to the Clerk's Office two copies an original and one copy of the proposed filing, each contained in a separate plain envelope clearly marked as "sealed 20 document" with the case number and style of the action noted on the outside. The Clerk's 21 Office shall note on each envelope the date of filing and docket entry number. 22 23 24 2. File a an original and a copy of the motion to seal with self-addressed postagepaid envelopes, setting forth a reasonable basis for departing from the general policy of a 25 public filing, and generally describing the matter contained in the envelope. The motion 26 shall specifically state the period of time that the party seeks to have the matter maintained 27 28 under seal by the Clerk's Office. Unless permanent sealing is sought, the motion shall contain a date on which the matter can be unsealed or destroyed by the Clerk set forth how 29 the matter is to be handled upon expiration of the time specified in the Court's sealing order. 30 Absent extraordinary circumstances, no matter sealed pursuant to this rule may remain sealed 31 for longer than five (5) years from the date of filing. 32 33 34 3. Complete and fFile a "Sealed Filing Cover Sheet" an "ORDER RE: SEALED FILING" in the form set forth at the end of this rule. The form is available at the Clerk's 35 Office. The bottom portion should be left blank for the Judge's ruling. 36 37 Court Ruling. If the Court grants the motion to seal, the Clerk's Office shall 38 C: maintain the matter under secure conditions until the date seal as specified in the Court order. 39 If the Court denies the motion to seal, both copies the original and copy of the proposed 40
- 41 filing and the motion to seal shall be returned to the party in its original envelope.

D. Disposition of Sealed Matter. Unless the Court's sealing order permits the matter to remain sealed permanently, the Clerk will dispose of the sealed matter upon expiration of the time specified in the Court's sealing order by unsealing, destroying, or returning the matter to the filing party.

Comment

(2001) The current amendments are intended to reflect more accurately existing procedures, and to assist the court in the maintenance and ultimate disposition of sealed records by creating a form order which specifies how long the matter is to be kept under seal and how it is to be disposed of after the expiration of that time. By its terms, this rule does not apply to materials covered by specific statutes, rules or court orders authorizing, prescribing or requiring secrecy. However, litigants are required to complete an "Order Re: Sealed Filing" in the form set forth at the end of this rule for materials being filed under seal after the entry of, and pursuant to, a protective order governing the use and disclosure of confidential information.

At the conclusion of each party's discovery, and prior to the discovery cut-off date, 1 interrogatories seeking the claims and contentions of the opposing party may be served unless 2 the Court has ordered otherwise. 3 4 5 2. 5. No part of an interrogatory shall be left unanswered merely because an objection is interposed to another part of the interrogatory. 6 7 3.6. (a) Where an objection is made to any interrogatory or sub-part thereof or to any document 8 request under Fed.R.Civ.P. 34, the objection shall state with specificity all grounds. Any 9 ground not stated in an objection within the time provided by the Federal Rules of Civil 10 Procedure, or any extensions thereof, shall be waived. 11 12 (b) Where a claim of privilege is asserted in objecting to any interrogatory or document 13 demand, or sub-part thereof, and an answer is not provided on the basis of such assertion: 14 15 16 (i) The attorney asserting the privilege shall in the objection to the interrogatory or document demand, or sub-part thereof, identify the nature of the privilege (including work product) which 17 is being claimed and if the privilege is being asserted in connection with a claim or defense 18 governed by state law, indicate the state's privilege rule being invoked; and 19 20 (ii) The following information shall be provided in the objection, unless divulgence of such 21 information would cause disclosure of the allegedly privileged information: 22 23 (A) For documents: (1) the type of document; (2) general subject matter of the document; (3) 24 the date of the document; (4) such other information as is sufficient to identify the document 25 26 for a subpoena duces tecum, including, where appropriate, the author of the document, the addressee of the document, and, where not apparent, the relationship of the author and 27 addressee to each other; 28 29 30 (B) For oral communications: (1) the name of the person making the communication and the names of persons present while the communication was made and, where not apparent, the 31 relationship of the persons present to the person making the communication; (2) the date and 32 the place of communication; (3) the general subject matter of the communication. 33 34 4. 7. Interrogatories shall be so arranged that following each question there shall be provided 35 sufficient blank space for inserting a typed response. If the space allotted is insufficient, the 36 responding party shall retype the pages repeating each question in full followed by the answer 37 or objection thereto. 38 39 5. 8. Whenever a party answers any interrogatory by reference to records from which the 40 answer may be derived or ascertained, as permitted in Fed.R.Civ.P. 33(c): 41

(a) The specification of documents to be produced shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and identify the records and to ascertain the answer as readily as could the party from whom discovery is sought.

(b) The producing party shall make available any computerized information or summaries thereof that it either has or can adduce by a relatively simple procedure, unless these materials are privileged or otherwise immune from discovery.

9 (c) The producing party shall provide any relevant compilations, abstracts or summaries in its 10 custody or readily obtainable by it, unless these materials are privileged or otherwise immune
 11 from discovery.

(d) The documents shall be made available for inspection and copying within ten days after

16 H. Discovery Motions.

18 1. Time for Filing. All motions related to discovery, including but not limited to motions to 19 compel discovery and motions for protective order, shall be filed within thirty (30) days of the 20 occurrence of grounds for the motion. Failure to file discovery motion within thirty (30) days, 21 absent a showing of reasonable cause for a later filing, may constitute a waiver of the relief 22 sought.

24 2. Motions to Compel. Except for motions grounded upon complete failure to respond to the 25 discovery sought to be compelled or upon assertion of general or blanket objections to discovery, motions to compel discovery in accordance with Rules 33, 34, 36 and 37, 26 Fed.R.Civ.P., shall quote verbatim each interrogatory, request for admission or request for 27 production and the response to which objections is taken followed by (a) the specific 28 29 objections, (b) the grounds assigned for the objection (if not apparent from the objection), and 30 (c) the reasons assigned as supporting the motion, all of which shall be written in immediate succession to one another. If certain of the issues have been resolved 7 8 by agreement, the statement shall specify the issues so resolved and the issues remaining unresolved. Failure to comply with the requirements of this rule may be cause for the Court 9 to grant or deny the discovery motion and impose on counsel an appropriate sanction, which 10 may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the 11 12 violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

14 J. Reasonable Notice of Taking Depositions. Unless otherwise stipulated by all interested parties, pursuant to Rule 29, Fed.R.Civ.P., and excepting the circumstances governed by Rule 15 30(a), Fed R.Civ.P., a party desiring to take the deposition within this State of any person upon 16 oral examination shall give at least five (5) working days' notice in writing to every other party 17 to the action and to the deponent (if the deposition is not of a party), and a party desiring to take 18 the deposition in another State of any person upon oral examination shall give at least ten (10) 19 working days' notice in writing to every other party to the action and the deponent (if the 20 21 deposition is not of a party).

protective order.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in accordance with Rule 32(a)(3), Fed.R.Civ.P., no deposition shall be used against a party who, having received less than eleven (11) calendar days' notice of a deposition as computed under Rule 6(a), Fed.R.Civ.P., has promptly upon receiving such notice filed a motion for protective order under Rule 26(c)(2) requesting that the deposition not be held or be held at a different time or place and such motion is pending at the time the deposition is held.

15	c. Listing or Marking. Rule 26(a)(1)(B), Fed.R.Civ.P., requires a party, without awaiting a
16	discovery request, to provide the other parties with a copy of, or a description by category and
17	location, of all documents, data compilations, and tangible things that are in possession,
18	custody, or control of the party and that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or
19	defenses, unless solely for impeachment. Local General Rule 16.1.B. mandates that documents
20	produced at the initial Scheduling Conference "must either be marked or be accompanied by
21	an accurate list." The parties also may want to use some means of listing or marking all
22	documents produced in the litigation so that produced documents can later be differentiated
23	from those which have not been produced. For a relatively few documents, a listing prepared
24	by the inspecting attorney (which should be exchanged with opposing counsel) may be
25	appropriate; when more documents are involved, the inspecting attorney may want to stamp
26	or mark each document with a sequential number. The producing party should allow such
27	stamping to be done so long as marking the document does not materially interfere with the
28 29	intended use of the document. Such documents which would be materially altered by stamping (e.g., promissory notes) should be listed rather than marked.

37	(1) Informal Requests. Whenever possible, counsel should try to exchange information
38	informally. The results of such exchanges, to the extent relevant, may then be made of record
39	by requests for admissions.
40

(2) Scope of Interrogatories. The Court will be guided in each case by the limitations stated in 1 Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b) and 33(a). (1) and Local General Rule 26.1.G., Southern District of 2 Florida. Interrogatories initially are restricted to those seeking names of witnesses with 3 knowledge or information relevant to the subject matter of the action, the nature and substance 4 of such knowledge, the computation of each category of damage alleged and the existence, 5 custodian, location and general description of relevant documents, including pertinent 6 insurance agreements, other physical evidence, or information of a similar nature, and the 7 names of expert witnesses and the substance of their opinions. Counsel's signature on 8 interrogatories constitutes a certification of compliance with those limitations. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 9 26(g)(2). Interrogatories should be brief, simple, particularized and capable of being understood 10 by jurors when read in conjunction with the answer. By the express terms of Local Rule 11 26.1.G.2, interrogatories Interrogatories propounded in the form set forth in Appendix B to the 12 Local Rules comply with the limitations of that rule. Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b) and 33(a). 13 14 15 16 17 (6) Number of Interrogatories. Local General Rule 26.1.G.1, Southern District of Florida, does not limit the number of interrogatories that may be propounded. If a party considers the 18 number or breadth of interrogatories to be burdensome in the context of a particular case, that 19 party may move for a protective order. Under Rule 33(a), Fed.R.Civ.P., without leave of Court 20 or written stipulation of the parties, interrogatories are limited to 25 in number including all 21 discrete subparts. 22 23 * * * * * 24 25 (11) Answers to Expert Interrogatories. The Southern District of Florida has adopted a formal 26 procedure by which expert witness reports and summaries are exchanged 90 days before the 27 pretrial conference (or the calendar call, if no pretrial conference is to be held.) See Local 28 General Rule 16.1.K. No deposition of an expert may be taken until the expert summary or 29 report has been provided. See Local General Rule 26:1.F.1.c. 26.1.F.1.b. However, initial 30 interrogatories seeking the names of expert witnesses and the substance of their opinions may 31 still be served.
